At Purple Sage Elementary School community, faculty, parents, and other interested community members will encourage each student to be successful learners, productive citizens, and lifelong learners.

P - Productive Citizens

S - Successful Learners

E - Educated for Life

Purple Sage Elementary is a place where students will develop the skills to lead, learn, and serve.

Purple Sage Elementary is a small community school located in Pine Trails Subdivision that opened in 1990 under the leadership of Mike Barkley. Since that time, Purple Sage has been led by Charlie Winsor, Dr. Dalane Bouillion, and Robin Blount. The school is currently under the principalship of Wendy McGee.

Purple Sage Elementary is one of the smaller elementary schools in the Galena Park Independent School District but growing each year. Enrollment for the 2023-2024 school year reached 480

Problem Statements Identifying Perceptions Needs

Problem Statement 1: 36.11% of PSE parents believe that there are barriers that prevent them in participating in or attending Parent Involvement Activities on campus. Root Cause: The time scheduled of the meetings/activities are not convenient for parents. i.e. work, etc.

Problem Statement 2: 47.37% of PSE Staff believe their voice isn't important and their input is not valued. Root Cause: Teachers are not aware that their participation in selected decision making committees is a part of their input being heard from the beginning of the school year until the end.
